EREMA Management Update

New Global Sales Director at EREMA

The Austrian specialist in plastics recycling systems and components, EREMA, has appointed a long-time employee as Global Sales Director: Christoph Wöss, previously Business Development Manager for the Bottle division, will take over the newly created position within the EREMA management team on April 1, 2025.

Ansfelden, 1 April 2025 – "With Christoph Wöss, we have gained a highly competent and experienced expert from within our own ranks, who has made a significant contribution to the successful development of EREMA in recent years. I am pleased that in his new role he will further professionalise our global sales allowing us to respond even more effectively to the needs of our customers in the various markets," says Manfred Hackl, Managing Director of EREMA and CEO of the EREMA Group.

Christoph Wöss has been part of the EREMA Group for 24 years and possesses in-depth market knowledge. With his extensive experience, he is well-versed in the international markets and the specific requirements of the plastic recycling industry. In his new role, he will manage EREMA's global sales activities and drive the company's strategic development in the global market. In this context, Christoph Wöss will lead the international sales team and work closely with EREMA's global subsidiaries to strengthen the company's market presence.

"As part of our global sales strategy, I am committed to focus even more on regional specifics and dynamic market needs to ensure optimal customer support on a global level," says Christoph Wöss.
